

FACULTY OF ARTS AND SOCIAL SCIENCES

List of Courses Offered for University of Malaya
Student Exchange (UMSEP) for the 2017/2018 Academic Session

BACHELOR OF SOUTHEAST ASIAN STUDIES

No.	Course Code	Topic	Pre-Requisite	Credit Hours	Courses Offered			Course Description (Compulsory to be filled up by the Faculty)	Other Description	Capacity
					Please Tick (√) Where Applicable
					Sem I	Sem II	Special Sem
1.	AIF1011	ASEAN Organisation and Administration	NO	3	√					20

								roadmap which includes the ASEAN Political and Security Community, ASEAN Economic Community and ASEAN Social and Cultural Community will also be discussed thoroughly.
2.	AIF2002	Politics and Government In Southeast Asia						The course will focus on the political and administrative systems in Southeast Asia. The first part of the course is an introduction to the theories and concepts in politics. The course will also describe the background of the establishment of the state in the region. The impact of historical, cultural and geopolitical factors over the country's administration will be explained.. Focus will also be given on the political system and governing style adopted in a few selected Southeast Asian countries. In the final part of the course, students are required to compare the political		20 system and government of the countries in Southeast Asia.

3.	AIF2002	Economic Development in Southeast Asia	NO	3	√			This course will explore the economic development of Southeast Asian countries. The first part of this course is related to the principles of economic development, which will focus on the structure and economic characteristics of Southeast Asian countries and various theories of economic development. The second part of this course is related to the problems and policies of economic development and will focus on the problem of poverty, inequality and growth, population growth and economic development, urbanization and migration, and human capital. The third part of this course will focus on transformation of agriculture and rural development, industrial development, the role of banking and financial system and international trade in the economic		20 development of Southeast Asian countries.

4.	AIF2018	Performing Arts of Southeast Asia	NO	3	√			Various social, economic, and political elements contributed to the formation and development of performing arts in Southeast Asian countries. In the length of its development, the field of performing arts has been transformed into entertainment media, employment, educational and political propaganda by the society. This course has three major parts, namely, (1) explanation of various theories and concepts related to performing arts, (2) identification of genres of Southeast Asian traditional and contemporary performing arts and its function in the Southeast Asian society, and (3) analysis of the role of the government and international agencies in the conservation of the primary traditional performing arts genres as national cultural heritage.		20

5.	AIF3010	Labour Issues In Southeast Asia	NO	3	√			This course will explore aspects pertaining to labour and labour issues in Southeast Asia. Topics that are covered include labour market indicators, demand and supply of labour, patterns of employment, problem of unemployment, poverty and income distribution. Problems related to child labour, female labour and foreign labour in Southeast Asian countries will also be discussed. The role of International Labour Organization (ILO), labour and trade unions and regional co-operation for human resource development will also be explored.	20
----	---------	---------------------------------	----	---	---	--	--	---	----

6.	AIF 3003	Ethnicity, Identity and Political Minorities in Southeast Asia	NO	3	√		The course will examine issues related to minorities in Southeast Asia in 3 parts. The first part discusses issues, identities and politics of ethnic and/or religious minorities such as Karen dan Rohingya (Burma), Malayu (Thailand), Moro (Filipina), Cham (Vietnam) dan Kristian Minahasa (Indonesia). The second part discusses indigenous minorities (Borneo) and migrant minorities (Chinese and Indians) in Southeast Asia, linking historical factors and the process of nation-state formation to their status in these nation states. The last section focuses on policies and approaches adopted by the state towards minorities and the subsequent demands for autonomy and rise of separatist movements.	20
----	----------	--	----	---	---	--	--	----